Chronological Cycles.

Dominical Letter	G	Julian Period	6596
Solar Cycle	16	Year of the World (Septuagint)	7391–92
Lunar Cycle or Golden Number	3	Dionysian Period	212
Epact (Moon's age Jan. 1)	22	Jewish Lunar Cycle	19

The calends were the first day of each month among the Romans; hence a calendar was a list of the months, beginning with their calends.

The real Solar Year contains 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 48 seconds; the Common or Civil Year, only 365 days. But for the neglect of these fractions Julius Cæsar ordered an additional day to be given to every fourth year, introducing it after February 24, called in Latin sextilis; hence these years are called Bissextile. In English they are called Leap Years. The Julian calendar did not completely rectify the error, and Pope Gregory XIII., in 1582, reformed the Calendar. The days from October 5 to 14 in that year were suppressed, and, to prevent errors, the century years 1700, 1800 were not to be regarded as Leap Years. This reform, called the Gregorian Calendar, most Protestant countries refused, for nearly two hundred years, to accept at the hands of the Pope, and retained the erroneous calendar. In New York, where the Dutch used the correct calendar, the English, on conquering the province, restored an erroneous form and retained it for a hundred years. Russia has just accepted it.

The Epact expresses the moon's age on the first day of the year, and is used to determine Easter, which depends on the moon, being always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox (March 21).

The Golden Number is the number of years that have elapsed since a new moon fell on January 1. It is obtained by adding one to the date, and dividing by nineteen, the number of years in a cycle.

From 11 times the Golden Number subtract 10, and divide by 30, subtract 1, and the remainder is the Epact.

The Epact subtracted from 24 gives the number of days from March 21 to the next ecclesiastical full moon, and the following Sunday, shown by the Dominical Letter, is Easter Sunday.

By the reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory XIII., the year began on the first day of January, and, consequently, whenever and wherever the NEW STYLE of reckoning time was adopted, then and there the year commenced on this day.

Previous to the use of the Gregorian Calendar the years had different days of beginning at various times in the same and different countries, and occasionally at the same time in the same country. In most countries it began on one of the following days: Christmas Day, the 25th of December; Circumcision Day, the 1st of January; Lady Day, the 25th of March; or Easter Day, the day of the Resurrection of our Lord.

To Ascertain the Length of the Day and Night.

At any time of the year add twelve hours to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from twelve hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

Holidays of Obligation in the United States.

All the Sundays of the year—The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—the Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary—Nativity of our Lord, or Christmas.

N. B.—Feasts which fall on Sunday are not included in this enumeration.

(In some Western dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi are not holidays of obligation.)

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent; every day in Lent, Sundays excepted; the Ember Days (see below); the vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B.—1. When a feast falls on Monday, the vigil is kept on the Saturday preceding. To fast consists in abstaining from flesh-meat and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock M. Besides this, a collation, or about the one-fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their twenty-first year are obliged to observe the fasts of the Church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses, the Friday of the Ember-Days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the Sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with for the faithful of the United States, except when a fast falls on that day. Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, etc., are dispensed by the indult of Pope Pius IX. from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year, namely, Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

Ember-Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-Week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 14th of September. They are days of fasting, and of great antiquity in the Church. The object of their observance is to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember-Saturday.

INDULGENCES GRANTED TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE UNITED STATES.

On the 13th of August, 1792, his Holiness granted to all and each of the faithful of the Catholic communion, living in the ENTIRE* diocese of Baltimore, a plenary Indulgence, to be gained by all who, having made a good confession and holy communion on the days mentioned below, shall visit the parish church or any other; or, if there be no church or chapel, shall devoutly recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father, and fervently pray for the propagation of the Catholic faith and the exaltation of the Church.

These plenary Indulgences may be gained on the following days, F.D.

* The Diocese of Baltimore then included all the States east of the Mississippi, except Florida.

From the vigil of Christmas until the day of Epiphany, inclusively.
From the first Sunday of Lent to the second, inclusively.
From Passion Sunday to Maundy-Thursday, inclusively.
From the Vespers of Holy Saturday to Low Sunday, inclusively.
From the first Vespers of Whit-Sunday until the last day of the Octave of Corpus Christi, inclusively.
On the feasts of the Purification, Annunciation, Assumption, Nativity, and Conception of the B. V. Mary, and during the whole Octaves of these feasts.
On the feast of the Apostles SS. Peter and Paul, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.
On the feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.
On the feast of All Saints, and during the whole octave of the same.
☞ By a decree of the Congregation of Indulgences, published January 28, 1842, in order that the faithful may gain the indulgences published by the Holy See, it is necessary that they should be recognized by the Bishops, and promulgated by them in their respective dioceses.

DIRECTIONS FOR UNDERSTANDING THE ORDO.

The prayers and portions of the Holy Scripture of which the Mass is composed are, in part, unalterably the same, and partly different every day. Those that are fixed and invariable are contained in what is called the Ordinary of the Mass, to be found at the beginning of the Missal. The parts that are changeable or proper—the Introits, Collects, Gradual, Tracts, Epistles, Gospel, Offertories, Secrets, Communions, and Post-communions—form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the ordinary of the Mass.

If a double should fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded; or a Sunday of the second class, which cannot be superseded except by doubles of the first class, as the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Lent. It must, however, be remarked, that the Gospels for Sundays, thus superseded by doubles, are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's Gospel; and also that a commemoration of the Sunday by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, etc., of the festival.

But as it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as all other difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following Ordo, as a guide to the morning as well as to the evening service of the Church.

1. The Office of every day is either Double, Semidouble, Simple, or of the Feria.

Of doubles (so-called, because the anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the Psalms at vespers), some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar, doub 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus, doub. 2d cl.; others are greater doubles, marked gr. doub., others common doubles, marked doub.

2. Doubles are always kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or within certain octaves which take place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semi-double.

Doub. 1st cl. denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2 cl. a lesser solemnity; greater doub. marks the feast to be of a higher rite than a common double; doub. is the common and most general rank of saints; semid. is less than a double; simpl. shows the feast to be one of the lowest rite; fer. or feria day is a week-day having no feast; great fer. are week-days in Lent, Advent, etc.; Vig. or Vigil is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class, which take place of all doubles, are:

The first Sunday of Advent, the first Sunday of Lent, Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday, Easter Sunday, Low Sunday, Whit Sunday, Trinity Sunday.

The Sundays of the second class, which take place, also, of all doubles, except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at mass and in both vespers, are, the second, third, and fourth of Advent; Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The Ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are, Ash Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner, within the octave of the Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at mass, and at vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semidouble (so-called because only a part of the Anthem is said before each psalm at vespers) is marked in the calendar thus, semid., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semidouble marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semidoubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples have no mark in the calendar, and are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at mass; unless it be a feast of the first class (on which no notice is taken of simples), or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low private mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples, of which there is only a commemoration made at mass, viz., the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember Days, and Tuesday in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent and of Lent at vespers and at mass, whatever feast happens; but of the Ember Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at mass.

6. If a vigil happen within the octave, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the octave, unless there be a double or a semidouble feast that day, in which case the mass is of the feast, with a commemoration of the octave, and of the vigil. But if a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival that has a vigil fall on a Monday, the mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of the Epiphany.

If a vigil happen in Advent, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, on an Ember Day, the mass is of the feria with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension Eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When a double of the first or second class, which is a holyday of obligation, falling on any day, is to be transferred, the obligation of the holy day is seldom transferred, but the faithful are generally obliged to hear mass on the day marked in the calendar.

8. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterward to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semidoubles: and among the doubles or semibles, those whose proper days first occurred, are to be kept first; there are, however, some exceptions to this rule.

9. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles, one collect, secret, or post-communion, only is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within some octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all which cases two collects, etc., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, etc.

10. Upon Sundays and all semidoubles, are said three collects, secrets, and post-communions; excepting Sundays, which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, etc.; one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

11. The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions to be said on Sundays and semidoubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

12. Upon semidoubles occurring within octaves, or in vigils, etc., the second collect, secret, and post-communion are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M.; but within the octaves of the Blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

13. On semidoubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, etc., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

14. Upon simples and ferias, three collects, etc., are said; but if the priest please, he may say five or seven, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

15. Upon week-days, which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the mass is of the foregoing Sunday.

16. Upon days within octaves, when no proper mass is assigned, the mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, etc.—N.B. The days with in octaves are kept as semidoubles only.

17. The collect of the B.V.M. within octaves on vigils and on semidoubles within paschal time, Grant, O Lord, etc., is found in the votive mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary; from Advent to Christmas the collect of B.V.M. is, O God, who wast pleased, read in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent; from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the Blessed Virgin, O God, who by the fruitful, as in the mass of the Circumcision.

18. The collect of gen. suffr., or general suffrage, is the prayer of the suffrages of the saints, which begins thus, Preserve us, O Lord, found in the ordinary of the mass.

19. The collects for the Church and Pope are said in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent. The collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation; the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

20. The words ad lib. signify that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers found toward the end of a missal.

21. The gospels assigned on Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semidouble is kept upon one day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember-day.

22. Where a special prayer is ordered to be said in the mass by the Bishop, it cannot be said in the place of the third prayer, which is noted ad lib. It must be said as the fourth. This prayer is omitted in all masses of the first class, and in high masses of the second class, unless it be ordered pro causa gravi, when it is said under the one conclusion. It may be said in private masses of the second class.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE VESPER OR OFFICE-BOOK.

It appears necessary to explain the order as well as the manner in which that part of the public Liturgy of the Catholic Church called Vespers is recited or sung.

Our Father and Hail Mary being said in silence, the priest, making the sign of the Cross, intones aloud the Versicle, Deus in adjutorium meum intende; to which the choir add the responsory, Domine ad adjuvandum me festina, with the Gloria Patri; and when five psalms with as many anthems have been sung, the priest sings the little chapter.

Then are sung the Hymn, with its Versicle and Responsory, and the Magnificat, with its Anthem, followed with such Prayers and Commemorations as are suitable to the day; which, if it be neither a Double nor within the Octave of a Festival, are the common Commemorations or Suffrages, and are to be found after the vespers for Saturday.

Every double has first and second vespers: the first are said on the eve of the Festival, and the second on the Festival itself. Hence it often happens that the vespers are not of the Sunday, but of some double that falls on the ensuing day.

To find out the particular vespers for every Sunday and holyday throughout the year, consult the Directory at the day of the month on which such Sunday or Festival falls.

EXPLANATION OF THE VESTMENTS AND CEREMONIES USED IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the Holy Mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the Altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the Priest.

The Altar represents Mount Calvary, where the Redeemer of the world expired upon an ignominious cross. This very word Altar has relation to sacrifice, which must necessarily be offered to God in that church in which his true faith is professed: and hence this name of Altar is mentioned by St. Paul—"We have an altar," said he, "whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle."—Heb. xiii. 10. The Altar also represents the table on which our blessed Savior, the night before he suffered, celebrated his last supper with his disciples.

The Candles are lighted during the Holy Mysteries, through a motive of honor and respect. They represent the light of faith, and the fervor of charity, which the Gospel inculcates. They are also expressive of spiritual life and joy. "Throughout all the churches of the East," says St Jerome, "when the Gospel is to be read, though the sun shines, torches are used, not to chase away darkness, but for a sign of joy."

The Crucifix is placed in the middle of the Altar, to represent to our minds the passion and death of Jesus Christ, which are chiefly to be considered and piously meditated upon in this Holy Sacrifice.

The Amice, a linen cloth which the priest pulls over his head, and fastens round his neck, signifies the linen with which the Jews blindfolded our Saviour in mockery when they smote him and buffeted him, saying: "Prophesy unto us, O Christ! who is he that struck you?"—Matt. xxvi. 68.

The Alb represents the white garment which Herod put upon Christ after he had despised and mocked him.—Luke xxiii. 11.

The Maniple that the priest wears on his left arm, the Stole that he hangs down from his neck, and the Girdle, figure the cords and fetters with which the officers of the Jews bound Christ, and led him from one place to another.—John xviii. 12–24.

The Chasuble, or upper garment, represents the purple garment which the soldiers put upon Jesus Christ, and the heavy cross that he carried on his blessed shoulders to Mount Calvary.

As to the colors of the ornaments with which the priest celebrates the Holy Mysteries, the White is used on the Festivals of our Lord, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Invention and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time, from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-Days, and Rogation-Days, when the Office is of them, and on the Feast of the Holy Innocents.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity-Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the Octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday, exclusively, when the Office is of the Sunday; but in Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead, which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a Double, except from Palm-Sunday to Low-Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of the 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, etc., the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the "Mass of the time." Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer, "Deus omnium fidelium," in the Votive Mass of the anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of the 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and feasts of the 2d Class the Commemoration is made with one ending.

2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese the Commemoration must be on the anniversary of the Transfer.

The titular sees are, for the most part, conferred on archbishops and bishops who are appointed to Apostolic Delegations, Vicariates, or Prefectures ; or to the office of Administrator, Coadjutor, or Auxiliary in a diocese.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals are the supreme council or senate of the Church, and the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff ; and at the death of a Pope they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons ; but these orders are distinct from the orders of the hierarchy ; it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College, when full, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, whose dioceses are the six "Suburban Sees"; 50 Cardinal Priests, whose titles are the "Titular Churches" of which they are appointed superiors, with jurisdiction and a right to a throne, etc., therein ; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to the churches called "deaconries." This number, however, is seldom complete.

OBITUARY.

BISHOPS.

Feb 26. Rt. Rev. Patrick Niesen Lynch, D.D., Bishop of Charleston, died at Charleston, February 26, 1882. He was born at Clones, County Monaghan, Ireland, March 10, 1817, but early removed with the family to Cheraw, S. C. He was educated at the Seminary of St. John the Baptist in Charleston, and was sent to the Propaganda, where he was a brilliant student. He was ordained in 1840, and began his ministry at the Cathedral, Charleston. From 1844 to 1855 he was rector of St. Mary's Church, Principal of the Collegiate Institute, and Vicar-General. On the death of Bishop Reynolds he became Administrator, and was consecrated Bishop of Charleston March 14, 1858. During the civil war his cathedral and house were destroyed, and the churches and institutions throughout his diocese were nearly all destroyed, injured, or deprived of means of support. Besides this he was left to struggle with a heavy load of debt. Much of this he paid off by the aid of benevolent friends throughout the country. He was an able theologian, well versed in the sciences, especially of astronomy. He wrote a series of papers on the Vatican Council, another on the Liquefaction of the Blood of St. Januarius, a review of the Galileo question.

April 17. Rt. Rev. Michael Hannon, D.D., Archbishop of Halifax, died at Halifax. Was born in Kilmallock, Limerick,

Ireland, on July 21, 1821, and was, therefore, within three months of being 61 years of age. In 1840 he came to Nova Scotia, and was appointed teacher in St. Mary's College, which had previously been established by Dean O'Brien. Five years later he was ordained to the priesthood. In 1852 he was made senior priest in the archdiocese of Halifax. He filled various positions in the Church, among others those of administrator, vicar-general, and archbishop. For over forty years Rev. Michael Hannon had labored among the people of Halifax, and endeared himself to the hearts of all. Beginning his ministrations here at a time when the priesthood numbered but few and their labors were extremely arduous, Father Hannon, by unremitting work, did much to break down the sectional feeling in Halifax, which in other places has been so bitter and so productive of evil results. He who had been a revered pastor still proved as beloved and loving in a more exalted position, and his influence upon the masses became greater than ever, and was always used for the advancement of the Church and the public good.

May 1. Rt. Rev. Celestine G. de la Hailandière, second bishop of Vincennes, died at Cambourg, France, aged 83. As he wished to be laid in the cathedral where he had presided, his remains were sent to America, and reached New York November 16. They were placed beside Bishops Bruté, Bazin, and St. Palais, beneath the altar of the cathedral of Vincennes, after a solemn requiem, on the 22d of November. He was born at Cambourg May 2, 1798, and was baptized by a priest concealed by the family in the house. He was bred to the bar, but in 1824 entered a seminary, and was ordained May 28, 1825. He came to America with Bishop Bruté in 1836, and became his vicar-general. On the 17th of May, 1839, he was appointed Bishop of Axiern and coadjutor; but as Bishop Bruté died he was consecrated Bishop of Vincennes August 18, 1839. He resigned the see in 1848, after rendering great service.

Nov. 25. Rt. Rev. Peter Francis Crinnon, D.D., Bishop of Hamilton, died at Jacksonville, Florida, aged 64. He was born at Cullen, County Louth, Ireland, in 1818. He came to Canada in his youth, and was ordained priest at Toronto in September, 1854, by Bishop de Charbonnel. His first mission was around London, and erected St. Mary's Church at Stratford. He became vicar-general of London, and was consecrated Bishop of Hamilton April 19, 1874. He labored earnestly to supply priests for the increasing Catholics, and lived to double the number in the diocese. He died at Jacksonville, Florida, to which he had gone for his health.

COMMISSARIAT OF THE HOLY LAND.

The land of Palestine, once trodden by the feet of Our Saviour, is replete with a thousand holy reminiscences. Hence in every age pious pilgrimages to it, which in time were enriched with special Indulgences by various Pontiffs.

With a view of enkindling in our people a similar zeal and spirit this Commissariat has been established with the approbation of his Eminence Cardinal McCloskey.

Subscriptions will be thankfully received at the Commissariat, and forwarded to the Rt. Rev. Superior of the Holy Sepulchre; said subscriptions or offerings to be employed in preserving the principal sanctuaries of the Catholic Church in Palestine, under the charge of the Franciscan Friars.

Letters of introduction will be given pilgrims journeying to the Holy Land; to all of whom one month's hospitality will be extended in the various Franciscan houses.

By the Bull of Pope Pius VI. "Inter cætera Divinorum," benefactors are made partakers in the good works done in the aforesaid mission, as well as in the Masses—over twenty thousand every year—offered up in the principal sanctuaries, and at the Holy Sepulchre, Bethlehem, for their welfare.

Office of the Commissariat, St. Francis' Church, 135 West Thirty-first street, New York.

Commissary, Very Rev. Charles da Nazzano, O.S.F.

Catholic population, including colored, 18,000.

The church and parochial residence of St. Michael, Pensacola, Fla., were destroyed by fire in September last. Owing to the terrible scourge, yellow fever, which was devastating the place at the time of the fire, the Catholics were unable to build immediately. As soon as possible a handsome brick church and suitable residence will be built, it is hoped.

A month later the wires flashed the news to the Bishop that the church, schools, and convent in Warrington, seven miles from Pensacola, were all destroyed by the fire which laid waste nearly the whole town. The poor people of Warrington will find it much more difficult to erect their church, convent, and schools, but, with God's blessing, their zealous pastor will soon conquer all difficulties and build again.

The congregation of St. Augustine is by far the oldest in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, long before the Plymouth Pilgrims, who came in 1620. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and it has continued to have a largely preponderating number of Catholics to the present day.

Chapel of Our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel has lately been discovered and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, two hundred and eighty years ago (in 1597) was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored some years ago by Bishop Verot, but was blown down in a gale of wind.

St. Ambrose's Parish, P.O. Racey Point, St. John's Co., Rev. S. Langlade, rector.

City of Jacksonville, Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Bernard O'Reilly, rector; Rev. Anthony J. F. Kilcoyne, assistant. The church, together with the parochial residence, a large and comfortable building, was destroyed by fire during the war. The new church was opened on the 16th of November, 1873.

Key West (the most southerly point of Florida and of the United States), Church of St. Mary, Star of the Sea, Rev. Felix Ghione, pastor; Rev. A. Spandonari, assistant. The church has received large additions and embellishments, and is the largest and handsomest edifice of the kind in Key West. This enlargement of the church has been absolutely necessary, because there has been lately a large accession to the Catholic population of this place, a considerable number of Cubans having settled here.

Tallahassee, capital of Florida, Church of Mater Dolorosa, Rev. J. L. Hugon.

Fernandina, Amelia Island, Nassau Co., Rev. J. F. O'Boyle. The church of Fernandina is dedicated to God, under the patronage of St. Michael, in remembrance of Father Michael de Auñon, who suffered martyrdom in this place at the time of the Indian rebellion against the Catholic clergy in 1597.

Settlement of Mandarin, Duval Co., Church of St. Joseph, Rev. Henry Clavreul, rector.

Pilatka, on the St. John's River, Church of St. Monica, Rev. W. J. Kenny, rector.

Church of St. John the Evangelist, Putnam Co., att. from Pilatka.

Tampa, Hillsborough Co., Church of St. Louis—in honor of Father Louis Cancer, O.S.D., who suffered martyrdom on the coast upwards of 300 years ago—Rev. P. J. Lynch, rector.

COLORED CONGREGATIONS.

The Catholic colored population of the diocese has received a due share of attention from the clergy, and the results have been very consoling in St. Augustine, where the men have organized a flourishing society under the name of St. Benedict's Colored Catholic Benevolent Association, the patron saint of the Society being St. Benedict the Moor, a colored man canonized in the present century by Pius VII. Under the guidance of the Sisters of St. Joseph there are also Catholic associations in a very prosperous state among the colored women and girls of St. Augustine; St. Monica's Society, for the care of the sick; St. Francis' Society, for married women; St. Cecilia's Society, for young colored women. The young colored boys here have lately been organized into a Society of St. Joseph. The colored Catholic population of St. Augustine is large enough to require for their accommodation an enlargement of the cathedral; this has been executed, and two new chapels of St. Monica and St. Benedict the Moo have been added to the time-honored building.

In Fernandina the colored people have a flourishing congregation. Th Sisters of St. Joseph have also opened schools for the colored peopl not only in St. Augustine, but also in Mandarin, Jacksonville, i Fernandina, and in Pilatka. In other places the church has n made any gain among the colored population. The very limite number of the clergy, and their yet more limited pecuniary re sources, are the causes of this momentary sterility, while Norther fanatics, well salaried by their societies, have put up in many place meeting-houses for them, where these simple, misguided people ar drawn together by political excitement, inflamed harangues in th name of liberty, singing, shouting, clapping of hands, dancing, co fused vociferations, and other indecorous exhibitions, which the fancifully call religious worship.

* The publishers earnestly request that notice of any errors in names should be sent to the chancellor of the diocese in time for his next report, with Christian names in full. It is the only way to secure correct reports. As a rule all letters addressed to the publishers requesting changes are sent to the archbishop or bishop of the diocese for his direction in the matter, and this often causes the reply to come too late.

MANHATTAN COLLEGE,

ON THE HUDSON,

Manhattanville, N. Y.

(The Brothers of the Christian Schools.)

THE object of this institution is to afford students the means of acquiring the highest grade of university education, by combining the advantages of the college and of the polytechnic school. The plan of studies embraces a thorough course of humanities, and both the higher mathematics and the natural sciences receive more attention than is usually bestowed on them in literary institutions.

A commercial department has been formed for the benefit of young men who cannot command the necessary time to pursue the whole course, either in the classic or the scientific department. To those attaining such proficiency in this course as will enable them to undergo a thorough examination, certificates of competency are given as a guarantee of their fitness to engage in mercantile pursuits.

As the college is conducted by the Christian Brothers, it is presumed that they need hardly assure the public that the uttermost attention is bestowed on the moral and religious training of all committed to their care.

AMERICAN COLLEGE

OF THE

Immaculate Conception

OF THE

BLESSED VIRGIN MARY,

LOUVAIN, BELGIUM.

PROSPECTUS.

This College has been established at Louvain by several of the American Bishops with the consent and approbation of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Malines, under the patronage of the Bishops of Belgium, and under the auspices of charitable persons, both in Europe and America, who take a lively interest in the missions of the vast American continent.

The object of the institution is to procure for the young men of Belgium and adjacent countries, who desire to consecrate themselves to the missions of North America, a sure and easy means of pursuing their vocation.

The young gentlemen will be taught in the establishment the English and German languages, and after having gone through a course of Theology and received the instructions necessary for their holy mission and the requirements of the country which they are destined to evangelize, they may be allowed to frequent the more profound lessons of the celebrated Catholic University of Louvain.

The missionaries formed in the American College are destined to remain secular priests, and, as such, will labor in the place assigned them by their respective Ordinaries.

Applicants for admission must have received the permission of their Ordinary, and must be furnished with certificates of good conduct and aptitude for the study of Theology or Philosophy.

Those who enter, after having been ordained priests will be sent to America and aggregated to a diocese as soon as they are judged sufficiently qualified for the work of the missions.

Students who pay their own pension will have the right of choosing any diocese they please amongst those whose Bishops are patrons of the institution. Those who do not pay for themselves will be at the disposition of the Rt. Rev. Patrons who secure the payment of their expenses.

Students whose expenses are paid by burses founded by charitable persons will be placed according to the intention of the founder.

Charitable persons in Europe are contributing to the foundation of burses in the College for the purpose of educating young men for the American missions. It is earnestly hoped that the Rt Rev. Prelates of America will employ their influence to secure similar foundations for the institution by zealous and charitable persons in the New World.

The Rector would respectfully request the Patrons of the Institution, as well as other American Prelates who desire to place students in the College, to inform him of their intention at least two months before the opening of the scholastic year, which begins on the first of October.

In case the number of applicants should be greater than can be received, the preference will be given to the students of those Prelates who have contributed towards the foundation.

Students who wish to enter should be at least sufficiently advanced in their studies to begin Philosophy.

The annual pension for board, including bedding, is 600 francs, or $116, in advance.

For further particulars address

RIGHT REV. J. DE NEVE, Domestic Prelate of His Holiness, Rector.

St. Mary's Academic Institute,

St. Mary's of the Woods, Vigo Co., Ind.

This noble Institution was founded in 1840 by the Sisters of Providence from Ruille, in France. The little band which undertook the arduous task of opening an educational establishment in the western wilds of Indiana was composed of six Sisters, including Mother Theodore, the foundress, whose name is held in veneration by all who had the happiness of knowing her. Many and great were the difficulties to be overcome in a new and uncivilized country, in which the resources were few, the language, customs, and manners entirely strange. But the zealous laborers, aided by those who came to join in the good work, struggled on, and before the lapse of many years St. Mary's Institute attained the well-earned reputation of being a first-class Academy. The present Academic building is pronounced by all who visit it to be one of the finest in the United States. It is located four miles west of Terre Haute, near the Indianapolis and St. Louis Railroad. It is spacious, well ventilated, convenient, and furnished with all modern improvements. It is liberally supplied with philosophical and astronomical apparatus, charts, globes, and everything conducive to the attainment of knowledge. The pupils have access to a well-filled library of choice and standard works. Every facility is afforded for attaining proficiency in music, painting in oil and water colors, etc. Special attention is paid to forming the morals and manners of the pupils. Simplicity of dress is enforced by rule. The extensive grounds surrounding the Institute are beautifully laid out, and offer every inducement to the young ladies to engage in healthful exercises.

Parents may rest assured that pupils placed under the Sisters' care receive all the attention that kindness can suggest.

(ST. MARY'S),

Incorporated in March, 1861, by an Act of the State Legislature,

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE MARIST FATHERS,

60 Miles above New Orleans and near the Convent of the Sacred Heart,

PARISH OF ST. JAMES, LOUISIANA.

This ancient establishment, of which the Marist Fathers are now the sole proprietors, is agreeably situated at COLLEGE POINT, one of the most eligible and picturesque spots formed by the windings of the Mississippi, and combines, together with the best sanitary conditions, all the advantages calculated to make it pleasant and attractive. Whatever the causes may be which contribute to the salubrity of the place, it is a well-known fact that no malignant fever ever broke out among the pupils, who have always been noted for their healthy appearance.

The College building, offering an aspect both graceful and commanding, its halls and Gothic chapel, the additional advantages of an extensive playground and lands, recently increased by the purchase of a shady and delightful adjoining property, mark out JEFFERSON COLLEGE as one of the noblest institutions of the State.

THE MARIST FATHERS, who regard education as one of their principal objects, are untiring in their efforts to instil into the hearts and minds of their pupils the most strict principles of virtue, as well as the knowledge of all the branches of a sound and practical education.

The College possesses a Library, and is empowered to grant Diplomas, confer Degrees, and bestow all literary honors. Great care is taken to promote the physical as well as the intellectual development of students. An experienced physician is in constant attendance.

PRIESTS

OF THE

Society of Mary,

COMMONLY CALLED

MARIST FATHERS, OR MARISTS.

This Religious Order, much as it has already been blessed by God's merciful Providence, does not yet count very many years of existence; founded in the Diocese of Lyons (France) by an humble and zealous priest in the beginning of the present century, so well and so justly called the "Age of Mary," the rising Society was applauded and encouraged by Pope Pius VII. in 1821, and formally approved by Gregory XVI. in 1836. A further sanction and blessing of the Holy See was bestowed upon it in 1860. His Holiness Pius IX. finally approved its constitutions by a solemn decree in 1873, thus adding to the testimony of time and experience the blessed seal of his unerring authority.

According to their constitutions, the members of the Society of Mary unite the active with the contemplative life, and the name they bear sufficiently tells under whose patronage and in whose spirit they have resolved to devote themselves both to their own sanctification and that of their neighbor, particularly the poor and those most destitute of religious comforts.

The primary object of the Order is to promote the sanctification of its members, by securing to them the advantages of the religious life, under the special protection of Mary, who is constantly set before them as the model of the humble hidden life, whether in community or in the exercise of the works of zeal.

These works, which form the secondary object of the Institute, may be reduced to the four following heads: The Training of Youth in Colleges that of Ecclesiastics in Seminaries, the Home and Foreign Missions, and Preaching, with the other functions of the Sacred Ministry in the places of residence.

Besides the practice of perfect religious obedience, which ought to constitute their peculiar character, the Marist Fathers profess an especial devotion to the Holy See, the greatest respect for episcopal authority, and in the discharge of the Sacred Ministry endeavor to live in perfect harmony with the secular clergy.

Their costume and regimen is that of pious, modest priests, without ostentation or luxury. There are no outward austerities prescribed by the rule, but to compensate for this a particular spirit of interior mortification and self-denial is required.

To be sent on missions among savage nations requires, on the part of the subject, his own personal application, besides decided proofs of virtue and the other necessary qualifications. The English-speaking subjects are especially destined for the establishments in Great Britain and Ireland, America, Australia, and New Zealand.

The Order likewise admits young men as Brothers Coadjutors (3), who, after due probation, take, like the Fathers, the three perpetual vows of religion, and belong to the Institute by an equal right, though with a different object.

They are received on the same conditions, except as regards science and Holy Orders, as the candidates for the priesthood. The qualifications especially required for them are a love for labor, and the knowledge of some trade or acquirement conducive to the material interest of the community.

For further particulars, or for admission, apply to the President, Jefferson College St. James, La.; THE REV. MARIST FATHERS, Algiers, New Orleans, or to THE REV. MARIST FATHERS, St. Michael's, Parish of St. James.

STOWMARKET, SUFFOLK, ENGLAND.

Stowmarket is a small town twelve miles from Ipswich, fourteen from Bury St. Edmunds, eighteen from Coldham, and forty from Norwich. The Mission is an offshoot from Ipswich, and in 1879 the late Bishop of Northampton, the Right Rev. Dr. Amherst, appointed me its first resident Priest. There is a plot of ground on which stands the little iron Church, 24 ft. by 12 ft.; there is no priest's house and no school; the Catholics are few and scattered over a large area of country. Though the past eighteen months have been to me a time of much poverty and many struggles, still I may state that steady progress has been made, and that the iron Church is now too small for the people, Catholic and Protestant, who attend the services.

In the name of God, for the love of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and in compassion for the sorrows of Our Lady, assist me according to your means in establishing a School, in building Church and Presbytery, and in the pressing needs of the Mission. I make this appeal with the special approval of the Right Rev. Arthur Riddell, Lord Bishop of Northampton, who has already blessed all who may assist me.

The least offering will be gratefully acknowledged by Yours truly,

FRANCIS JAMES WARMOLL.

THE CHURCH—ITS RITES AND SERVICES EXPLAINED FOR THE PEOPLE.

By REV. JAMES L. MEAGHER.

Being a graphic and clear DESCRIPTION and EXPLANATION of the CHURCH—Its shape, and why it is built in that manner, the meaning of each part, a history of ARCHITECTURE, SCULPTURE, MUSIC, and PAINTING.—The THINGS in the Church, their meaning and their object, the Statues, Images, Pictures, and the Pictorial windows.

The SANCTUARY, why separated from the rest of the Church, the LIGHT, its meaning, the CANDLES, why used, their meaning, their reasons, and their history.

The ALTAR, its history, why made in that way, what it signifies. The Altar among the Jews, the way the TABERNACLE of Moses was made, the meaning of each thing in the ancient TABERNACLE, and how our Churches are made like it. The Holy VESSELS and LINENS used in our Services. Why we have LATIN and not some modern tongue.

The VESTMENTS, their meanings, and their histories.—The SIX worn by bishops and priests, and the NINE worn by the bishops only—The meaning of each Vestment in particular, the COLOR of the Vestments, and meaning of the colors.

THE MASS EXPLAINED.

The Book is INTENSELY INTERESTING to all parties, of whatever religion, saying nothing of any form of belief, but telling in the simplest words the meaning of so much that is mysterious in the Church.

Brown's English Grammars

THOROUGHLY REVISED,

By HENRY KIDDLE, A.M.,

Late Supt. of Schools of New York City.

As the PUBLISHERS OF BROWN'S GRAMMARS, we take pleasure in announcing that these POPULAR STANDARD TEXT-BOOKS have been THOROUGHLY REVISED AND ADAPTED TO THE PRESENT EDUCATIONAL DEMANDS.

While we have constantly endeavored to add to these books all the improvements which the latest experience and study have devised or suggested, we have also striven to retain the grammatical system of Goold Brown, in all essential particulars, virtually intact. This we believe will still be found to be the case in this new edition; although very decided changes have been made in certain important respects, besides the addition of matter to carry out the plan of the reviser.

With these alterations they are the most complete, systematic, thorough, and practical text-books published in the English language.

Their superiority consists in

PRACTICAL LANGUAGE LESSONS.
CLEARNESS AND METHODICAL ARRANGEMENT.
FULNESS OF GRAMMATICAL DETAIL.
COMPLETE ELABORATION IN ALL THE SEVERAL PARTS.
A LOGICAL ACCURACY AND PERFECTNESS OF DEFINITION.
FORMS AND FORMULAS OF ANALYSIS, SYNTACTICAL RESOLUTION AND CORRECTION, AS EXACT AND EXHAUSTIVE AS THE DEMONSTRATIONS OF GEOMETRY.
COMPLETE ADAPTATION TO ALL THE PURPOSES OF SOUND GRAMMATICAL INSTRUCTION.
DEFINITE PRESENTATION OF THE SUBJECT-MATTER.
RIGID EXACTNESS OF THE DEFINITIONS AND RULES.

The School Series comprise

Brown's First Lines of English Grammar, - $0.45
Brown's Institutes of English Grammar, - 1.00

Copies of the new edition of the "FIRST LINES" will be sent by mail to those who desire to examine it, on receipt of 25 CENTS, and of the "INSTITUTES," on receipt of 50 CENTS.

PRAYER-BOOKS

Ever seen in this country should fail to visit the establishment of

D. & J. SADLIER & CO.,

31 Barclay Street, New York.

Several houses have, from time to time, had copies of their books bound in Paris for holiday sales, but all previous attempts are as mere sketches compared to the elegant work secured by this house from the hands of the choicest and most artistic binders in France.

Every book is a work of art that ought to be handed down in a family for a century. The finest carving on ivory and mother-of-pearl, exquisite in design and artistic in modelling; gilding of permanent, pure metal; clasps that are a study in themselves; inlaid covers, where the designs are formed by the most happy blending of tints and shades—mother-of-pearl being taxed to produce new and striking effects. The tortoise-shell, richer, perhaps, because more subdued, is heightened by gold and silver ornamentation, wrought on with the greatest skill and taste.

Such an array of books, in which it will be difficult to detect a flaw, have never been seen in any American house, and we doubt whether Paris itself can show as many that will compete with them.

THE WEDDING-CASES

FEET AND HANDS FROM NATURE.

I beg to call the attention of the Rev. Clergy to my NEW CATALOGUE of Statues, Busts, etc. It will be found fuller than any previous issue, and I trust will be of service in making up orders. My collection has recently been enriched by large importations from Rome, Florence, and Munich. As I make this a specialty, I can guarantee work equal to any house in Europe. I defy competition in regard to prices. Parties will be convinced of the above by personal inspection.

Churches, Fairs, Festivals, etc., supplied with small work at wholesale prices.

Also a varied collection of Antique, Roman, and Mediæval Statuary, etc., for the use of Schools, Academies of Design, etc. Hands, Feet, Arms from Nature, Elementary Studies for Drawing, etc. Pedestals, Brackets, etc.

Price-list of the above will be mailed to any part of the world on application. Constant alterations and additions are taking place in stock.

All orders are carefully packed and shipped to any part of the United States and guaranteed from breakage. Relief stations of the crossway cast in cement, plaster, or composite.

Sisters of Charity's Sure Remedy

Patented at Washington and Ottawa in 1871.

Having secured the right to manufacture and sell the "Cyano Pancreatine" throughout the United States and Canada, the Sisters invite the attention of the public to this superior remedy, compounded by themselves, for the relief of the large number who suffer so violently from Dyspepsia, etc.

The following certificate is from Dr. Beaubien, of Montreal, which is subscribed to by many other eminent physicians, all professors in the Victorian Medical College and Bishop's Medical College, of Montreal:

"This Medicament, compounded by the Sisters 'Pharmaciennes' of the General Hospital (Gray Nunnery), contains no ingredients which can in any way harm the system.

"As a compound it is entitled to rank amongst the most beneficial of all special remedies, principally in the following cases: 1st. DYSPEPSIA, or derangement of the digestive faculties, where it produces astonishing effects throughout all stages of the disease, provided there be no organic hurt, in which case the Medicament can only impart a temporary relief. Its curative properties, having been already tested in a great number of the above-mentioned cases, leave not the slightest doubt of its efficacy. 2d. In BRONCHITIS, or PULMONARY CATARRH, it acts as a calming remedy, facilitates expectoration, relieves the cough, and brings the malady to a proper solution. 3d. In COLDS, tending to Consumption, it causes a visible change for the better, renders expectoration easy, and strengthens the stomach, enabling the patient to use Cod Liver Oil, thus tending not only to alleviate suffering but also to prolong life."

Notice.

This composition does not interfere with any other remedy or prescription given by physicians.

In compliance with the request of their friends, the Sisters have established a Laboratory in Massachusetts, enabling them to fill all orders more promptly.

They would direct special attention to their Prayer-Books, which are got up in every size and every variety of binding and of price, and are the most saleable books published.

School-Books have especially been objects of their attention, and their list includes the Metropolitan Series of Readers, certainly the finest in the market, the well-known Readers of the Christian Brothers, Spellers, Grammars, Elementary Histories, Table-Books, Arithmetics, &c., for which they confidently solicit the examination and approval of teachers, and all engaged in the work of Catholic Education.

For the convenience of persons ordering books for libraries, they have given, in addition to the Catalogue of their own publications, an alphabetical list of all the Catholic books published in America, and a list of Foreign books, which they keep constantly in stock.

Those who favor them with their orders can depend on promptness and strict attention to their commands.

D. & J. SADLIER & CO.'S

MAGNIFICENT FOLIO EDITION OF

HAYDOCK'S

Catholic Family Bible and Commentary.

Edited by Frederick Canon Oakeley, and Specially Sanctioned and Approved by their Eminences Cardinal Manning and Cardinal McCloskey.

Embellished with about 80 exquisite engravings in the highest style of art, from designs by Doré, Haverbeck, etc.

D. & J. SADLIER & Co. present this new edition of the standard Catholic Bible known as the Douay, with the text carefully revised and corrected according to the standard Roman edition of the Latin Vulgate. The Commentary, the most thorough and complete in English, is the work of the Rev. George Leo Haydock, who was assisted by monks of the famous Benedictine Order and other Biblical scholars. Under the supervision of Canon Oakeley new notes have been added to meet the questions raised in our day. It is thus in text and commentary far superior to any edition of Haydock ever before offered to the Catholic public.

CONDITIONS—Sadlier's Haydock is in new type, which is a marvel of beauty; the page is a folio, well proportioned, and the paper is of exquisite material and finish, and of great durability. The Bible will form about sixteen hundred pages, and will be less bulky and cumbersome than any other heretofore issued, and the illustrations will make it a work of incomparable beauty, the pride and admiration of a Catholic household.

This work will be issued for subscribers only in about 34 parts, at 50 cents a part, to be published in weekly parts, so as to deliver the whole Bible without interruption or delay. Rich and appropriate bindings suitable for so grand a work will be got up by the publishers, to enable purchasers to select their style of binding on the completion of the work.

BOUND IN THE FOLLOWING STYLES:

We also propose to those agents and persons who prefer to canvass this work complete in fine binding to supply them at the following prices for their customers:

NOW READY.

The Golden Series

SADLIERS' ELEMENTARY GEOGRAPHY.

ILLUSTRATED BY

NUMEROUS MAPS AND ENGRAVINGS

In presenting this work we respectfully solicit the attention of the publ to a brief statement of its leading features. The plan adopted is the c jective. First the maps are presented, then the map questions, and final some descriptive geography and important facts. It is a First Book or e mentary work, as the name imports, and, though complete in itself, is or preparatory to the study of a more comprehensive manual. It is adapte in style and matter selected, to the capacity of young learners, for whom it intended.

It contains TWENTY-FOUR maps, including special maps of Ireland, the D minion of Canada, the German Empire, and New York City and its vicinit which are printed in bright and beautiful colors from original designs th have been drawn and engraved expressly for this work.

It is the first of a series of three books. The second will also be comple in itself and will contain the principal part of the science, while the thi will be complete and scientific.

The maps in the second and third books will be on a uniform scale of certain number of miles to an inch, which is the correct method. The teac ing is erroneous, and false impressions are made on the young minds, whe for instance, the map of Texas is made the same size as the map of Europ without any reference to a scale.

The work will show that the author is a practical teacher, who thorough understands the subject. Unusual pains have also been taken in the m chanical execution of the beautifully-colored maps and appropriate e gravings.

Therefore it is confidently hoped that the high degree of excellence th has been attained will be duly appreciated by those interested in the cause education, and lead to its extensive use.

Small quarto, strongly bound, price 50 cents.

NEW SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY.

(THE GOLDEN SERIES.)

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & Co. have just published the second book of their Golden Series of School Geographies, adapted to the use of older scholars in Grammar and Preparatory Schools. It has been prepared for the express purpose of furnishing a complete manual for most schools, and contains all the information which the vast majority of pupils will need or desire.

The Objective Method has been observed in the preparation of the lessons—the map first, with suitable questions leading to a knowledge of the topography of the country, and the location of its principal cities.

This is followed by descriptive lessons, presented in simple and concise form, methodically arranged, and embracing an account of surface, soil, and climate; industries, products, and exports; the character of the people, state of society, form of government, education, and religion; together with brief historical facts and incidents of general interest.

The lessons on climatology, mountains, ocean currents, and general physical geography form a most essential groundwork for the descriptive geography of the different countries.

Great care has been taken in the preparation of the maps, which have been prepared and engraved expressly for this work. They are clear and accurate, exhibiting the leading features of the countries which they represent, and contain the latest and most authentic information. The omission of unimportant details gives greater prominence to those features with which every student should become familiar, and serves to impress them indelibly upon the mind.

The Geography of Greenland, Iceland, the Dominion of Canada, Africa, Oceanica, Mexico, and South America will be found to be more complete and accurate than any other work of this class or size now published.

The clean, open page and elegant illustrative cuts will be a source of pleasure, as the full and accurate information and graphic description will be of profit to the learner.

Large quarto, price $1 25.

IMPORTANT TO TEACHERS.

The use of these two Geographies, which are very ample in themselves, will do away with the use of so many books, thereby saving time and money. Pupils studying with these two books will have very little to learn in geography.

Correspondence invited in reference to the adoption and introduction of SADLIERS' GOLDEN SERIES OF GEOGRAPHIES.

Special terms for introduction will be made, and copies for examination with a view to introducing the work will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of twenty-five cents and fifty cents respectively.

The High-School Geography, soon to be issued, will be a complete text-book of mathematical, physical, and historical geography, with graphic representations of the great industries of the world, and the state of society and civilization in the different countries.

For the highest classes in academies and seminaries, and for use in colleges and by special students, it will fill a place not now provided for by any current American Geography.

A New Greek Grammar.

A Grammar of the Greek Language. By Rev. D. Yenni, S.J., Professor of Greek and Latin in Spring Hill College. 1 vol. 8vo, half bound, ... $1.25

(SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TERMS.)

The object of this Grammar is to simplify and facilitate the study of Greek in the middle and higher classes of our colleges and academies. Its plan, which is substantially the same as that of the author's Latin Grammar, has been successfully tried for many years in the school-room. The leading modern treatises on Greek Grammar have been freely consulted, among others those of Buttmann, Curtius, and especially the profound and accurate work of Kühner. Their labors were submitted to a careful analysis, and everything that could prove of real use to the student, and which is practically attainable in an undergraduate course, has been selected and adapted to the simple and uniform method here pursued. The formation of the tenses, which usually proves a stumbling-block in the path of the learner, will be found treated in a simple and methodic manner, and based on a thorough study of the Greek verb. Kühner's Syntax has chiefly been followed, but the arrangement of the Concords is that of the well-known Latin Grammar of Alvarez, and will be found logical and easy in practice. The Greek Accents, the Dialects, and the Greek Prosody have been treated of in the form of appendices at the end of the Grammar. A number of appropriate Exercises, with a Vocabulary, have been added, which serve to test the accuracy of the pupil's knowledge and to facilitate his first labors.

Finally, no pains have been spared to produce a systematic, and for all practical purposes a complete exposition of the Grammar of the Language.

Correspondence invited in reference to the adoption and introduction of the Grammar in schools and academies.

Special terms for introduction will be made, and copies for examination, with a view to introducing the work, will be sent by mail, post-paid, at introductory rates.

Yenni's Latin Grammar.

A NEW, LARGE, AND IMPROVED EDITION.

A Grammar of the Latin Language. By Rev. D. Yenni, S.J., Professor of Greek and Latin in Spring Hill College. 1 vol. 8vo, half bound, ... $1.25

(SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TERMS.)

In preparing the Grammar here presented to the public, we have availed ourselves of the labor of the very first grammarians and lexicographers of Germany, England, France and Italy, incorporating with borrowed materials such observations and arrangements as the experience of so many years has suggested. It is, therefore, not originality that is claimed for the present work, but utility. No new system has been invented; no new method introduced. The work thus compiled is intended not only for students actually going through a regular course of classical studies in schools and colleges, but for such also as may deem a private review of the Latin Grammar available. It is intended equally for both the higher and lower classes, for we do not share the opinion of those who require a Latin Primer for beginners and a quarto Grammar for adepts as a necessary condition of successful classical education. We rather think that Grammar best calculated to ensure final success which provides equally for all, which goes with the child and the youth, from year to year, from class to class, as a dear companion and trusty guide. In this vade mecum the more talented pupil will have a treasure from which to store his mind and fit himself for a superior course, while the less talented pupil will have a Mentor to clear up his doubts and both will be benefited gradually, naturally, as the constant perusal of the same book will, by strengthening local memory, render its use more agreeable.

Correspondence is invited from teachers and professors in reference to the adoption and introduction of "YENNI'S LATIN GRAMMAR" in schools under their charge. Special terms will be made for introduction, and copies for examination with that object in view will be forwarded by mail, post-paid, at introductory rates, upon application to the publishers.

DE CONCILIO'S PHILOSOPHY.

ELEMENTS

OF

Intellectual Philosophy.

EMBRACING LOGIC, ONTOLOGY, AND ANTHROPOLOGY.

By Rev. J. De Concilio.

ONE VOL. 12MO, ... $1 50

"There are exceedingly able works in other languages already published on the subject treated by Father de Concilio. The names of their authors are almost sacred; certainly they are endeared not only to Catholic but to universal literature; but assuredly, in its simple, progressive, and, to borrow the phraseology of the scientists, evolutionary form, the present work has a charming adaptability not possessed by its predecessors.

"The treatise on ontology is in a special degree instructive and valuable. He gives us in the most comprehensible form a positive system of philosophy, as synthetical as it is analytical. He not only demolishes but constructs. He not only dispels error but substitutes truth. And this he accomplishes by the more natural process of development than by the crushing process of demolition.

"Another and a crowning character of the work is the perspicacity of its language. Works on abstruse subjects are, as a rule, as conspicuous for their obscurity as their ability. As has been justly remarked of the little Catholic Catechism, that it contains the highest system of philosophy and yet is easy of comprehension to all minds, so we may truly say of this excellent system of philosophy that while it unfolds the entire economy of Christian truth, yet its apprehension is as facile as its scope is comprehensive.

"This work is intended to be a text-book for schools, and it is earnestly to be hoped it will meet with the ready and general reception it merits. We live in an age and country where every one reads, and when minds are panting for knowledge. If not to the pure, they will go to the poisoned, founts. We are daily called on to defend the truth, and must meet error in all its subtle and protean forms. The Catholic Church is truth, partaking of the attributes of her Maker, the channel of salvation for human souls, and it is the duty of every one to know the truth she embodies and be able to defend it. —New York Tablet.

Special terms for introduction will be made, and copies for examination, with a view to introducting the work, will be sent by mail, post-paid, at introductory rates. Address

THE CONVERT;

OR,

LEAVES FROM MY EXPERIENCE.

BY

O. A. BROWNSON, LL.D.

A new revised edition, edited by his son, Henry F. Brownson. 1 vol. 12mo, cloth extra, with portrait, $1 50

It is full of interest as it is, containing much useful information respecting the various sects, schools, and parties with which the Convert at different times came in contact, with sketches of their several founders and chiefs. Passing through the experiences of Presbyterianism to become a Universalist, and a World Reformer and Humanitarian, at last, after many vicissitudes, the earnest, single-hearted enquirer obtained the blissful glimpse of the one truth. Like many another similarly favored, he could exclaim:

"Darkness and doubt are now flying away,
No longer I roam in conjecture forlorn—
So breaks on the traveller, faint and astray,
The bright and the balmy effulgence of morn."

—London Catholic Register.

We need not introduce this book to our readers. We are glad to see another edition called for. The experiences of such a mind as Brownson are of vital interest. "I have not addressed my work," says the author, "especially to Catholics or non-Catholics, but to the public at large. My purpose has been to render to all who may take an interest in the matter an account of my conversion to Catholicity, and to enable the curious in such matters to discover the connecting link between my past and my present life, in order to enable them to discover the connecting link between nature and grace, the natural and the supernatural, and to perceive that, in becoming a Catholic, a man has no occasion to divest himself of his nature, or to forego the exercise of his reason. . . . I have aimed to write an instructive, not an amusing book."—Pilot.

CONVERSATIONS

LIBERALISM AND THE CHURCH.

BY

O. A. BROWNSON, LL.D.

1 vol. 12mo, cloth, 75c.

Extract from the Preface.

"This little volume must speak for itself. The conversations turn on questions of the day and the hour. Taken as a whole, they form a passable defence of the Church against the objections urged in the name of Liberalism and Progress, or so-called Modern Civilization. They are not purely imaginary, but such as I have really had time and again with the enemies of the Church who object to her principally on political and social grounds."

SADLIERS' EXTRAORDINARY CHEAP EDITION

OF THE

OCTAVO CATHOLIC BIBLE.

It is in the text accurate to the very highest degree, the Douay Bible, as revised by Dr. Challoner, and the Latin Vulgate being strictly followed. It is printed from new and clear type of remarkable beauty, on fine, thin, highly-calendered paper, and well and substantially bound.

No more convenient, readable Bible has ever been placed within the reach of Catholics in the United States, and with no other Bible was so much care taken and expense incurred to attain the utmost accuracy and prevent the occurrence of the gross errors and omissions which disfigure so many hastily got-up Bibles which are imposed on an unsuspecting public. This Bible is approved and commended by His Eminence John Cardinal McCloskey, Archbishop of New York. Its cheapness and its superiority over all others make it in an especial manner the Bible for the Catholic household. It is within the means of all; every one can afford it. To clergymen on the mission its accuracy and portable character, as well as the clearness and legibility of the type, make Sadliers' cheap Octavo Bible one they can use with satisfaction and heartily commend to all.

Bound in the following styles:

Cloth extra,	$2 00
Arabesque, gilt edges,	3 00
Imitation antique, gilt edges,	3 50

TEN WORKING DESIGNS

FOR

Catholic Churches,

Containing all Details, Specifications, Figured Dimensions, etc., necessary to bring each work to completion without the assistance of an Architect; together with

PRACTICAL ESSAYS

ON

Ventilation, Heating, Adaptability, and Acoustics.

By CHARLES SHOLL.

This work has been completed and designed by a professional Architect, of large experience both in Europe and America, who has of late years turned his attention exclusively to Ecclesiastical Architecture. When completed it will contain Ten complete Designs for cheap Churches, costing from $2,600 to $25,000, and respectively seating from 256 to 1,000 adults and a proportionate number of children. We can guarantee that each Church will be a correct type of the style adopted in every detail.

Designs E, I, and K are intended for congregations of ample means, as the MATERIAL adopted, and the GENERAL FINISH, is of an expensive character.

We have been called on repeatedly by numbers of the Right Rev'd Clergy to furnish a work of this description, and have been prevented up to this time by our inability to find a person qualified to do justice to so important a subject. By the admission of experienced architects, the work is now such as will stand the severest criticisms. We therefore address ourselves especially to this body to encourage our efforts in developing a true spirit of Catholic Architecture throughout the land.

These Designs have been submitted to the Most Rev'd Archbishops of New York and Halifax, and the Right Rev. Bishop of Charleston, the two latter of whom were in the city, who have kindly furnished us with the following

APPROBATIONS.

NEW YORK, March 1, 1869.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER & Co.,—Your project of publishing a series of Designs for Catholic Churches, accompanied by Working Plans and Specifications, prepared by a competent Architect, is one which meets my hearty approval, and which, when accomplished, will, I think, be very useful to the Rev. Clergy, especially in localities where such designs, combining taste with economy, cannot easily be procured. Wishing for your enterprise the ample patronage it merits, I remain, dear sirs, your most obedient servant,

JOHN, ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, April 12, 1869.

DEAR SIRS,—I have examined with deepest interest your first series of Designs for the construction of Catholic Churches of every size and order of Architecture, and it is simply true to say, that this work, so auspiciously commenced, has my heartiest approbation.

The want of such a practical book on Catholic Architecture for the last twenty years, in the remote dioceses and country parishes of the United States and elsewhere in America, has cost the Catholic population of this Continent, I am sure, many millions of dollars without any commensurate result.

In the present work, Bishops and Priests not having access to a first-class Architect, often within a circuit of many hundred miles, are always sure of finding a first-class Plan and all information regarding site, cost, details, etc., etc., etc. Moreover, instead of having to depend on the ever limited resources of any single Architect, they will have, as it were, a boundless variety of Designs and most valuable suggestions to choose from, as will appear best suited to the wants and resources of each locality, and the true character and magnitude of the work on hand. With this expression of my humble views on this most important and useful work, I am, dear sirs, very respectfully yours,

THOMAS L. CONNOLLY, ARCHBISHOP OF HALIFAX.

D. & J. SADLIER & Co.

MESSRS. D. & J. SADLIER,—Gentlemen: It is with exceeding pleasure that I learn you have undertaken the publication of a series of designs for Churches, to be erected at moderate cost; and still further, that to those detailed designs and drawings, you will unite clear and complete specifications, all drawn up by a skillful and experienced Architect. Such a work will be truly a benefit, as by it, miscalculations, errors, omissions, etc., which vex the soul of whoever undertakes the erection of a Church, may in great measure be avoided. P. S.—Please send me four copies as soon as ready. Respectfully, your obedient servant,

P. N. LYNCH, BISHOP OF CHARLESTON, S. C.

BISHOP'S HOUSE, NEWARK, June 10, 1869.

Having examined the Series of Architectural Designs and Plans for Churches, about to be published by the Messrs. SADLIER, I agree in the above approval and recommendation. I remain, very truly yours,

J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY, BISHOP OF NEWARK.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 25, 1869.

DEAR SIRS,—I am rejoiced to hear of your project, viz.: the issuing "Ten Working Designs for Catholic Churches," containing details, specifications, figured dimensions, etc., and that you have found a man equal to the task. I have no doubt as to your being fully remunerated for your labor and outlay. Let me express the hope that the Architect will have an eye to the requirements of the taste and style of our times and country. You may put me down as subscriber to the amount of four copies. Faithfully yours,

THOMAS, BISHOP OF ST. PAUL.

D. & J. SADLIER & Co., New York.

Trifling modifications will enable any other Christian denomination to use these designs, and adapt them to their different form of worship.

The number printed must depend on the extent of subscriptions. The edition will be strictly limited to a few copies beyond the list; it will be impossible to obtain it hereafter except at an advanced rate. Subscribers should therefore send in their names immediately.

The Rt. Rev. Bishops and Clergy who feel the want of this long-desired book, will therefore be kind enough to correspond with us at once, to avoid disappointment which all will regret.

Although they have labored for thirty years to increase the libraries of Catholic Churches and families with valuable works, the publishers feel convinced that they have never offered a book that will prove of greater service to both Clergy and people, and consequently to the Church at large.

The work is large folio, containing 45 plates, 75 pages of letter-press, and is finished in the best style, on toned paper, and partially illuminated. Folio size, 20 by 14. Price $10. Sent by Mail or Express on receipt of price. Half Mor. beveled and gilt edges $15.

THE THIRD READER has been compiled from original sources, and not from other Readers. The Compiler has endeavored in this book to make the reading-matter interesting, as well as morally and religiously instructive, being decidedly of opinion that in lessons intended for school-reading all that is dry and tedious should be avoided; it is, therefore, of great importance that those lessons be presented to them in as pleasing a form as possible.

THE METROPOLITAN FOURTH READER is a continuation of the same style, calculated to make the pupils love their Reading Lessons, and inculcates at the same time lessons of morality from the best writers. It contains lessons in Articulation, Accent, Emphasis, and adds brief definitions in all the words of the Reading Lessons that are given as exercises in Spelling.

THE METROPOLITAN FIFTH READER begins with a full course of instruction in the principles of Rhetorical Reading. Being intended for advanced pupils, we have aimed at making it a key to true Literature; for we are convinced that as a general thing our youth leave school with scarcely an idea of who are good authors, or of what books they should read—no standard for reading has been given them, no taste has been formed—hence the eagerness with which most of them peruse the silly, sentimental trash daily appearing from the press. But the greatest evil is that we have no school-book which gives our pupils any knowledge of Catholic authors. A short biographical sketch is added to the various selections.

THE SIXTH READER; or, BOOK OF ORATORY. This work contains selections from distinguished orators, ancient and modern, carefully arranged. As this volume is intended for academies of both sexes, care has been taken to make it suitable for either. Young ladies are not expected, indeed, to become orators, yet, as proper and elegant reading is almost impossible without a knowledge of the principles of elocution and practice in delivery, elocution must form a branch of their education, and a suitable manual, such as we venture to say we here present, cannot fail to be appreciated.

New Practical French Grammar

By A. BIARNOIS.

1 Vol. 12mo, . . . Cloth, $1.50.

We add the following letter from the late Dr. Brownson:

ELIZABETH, N. J., October 31, 1867.

MY DEAR SIR: I have examined your method of a New French Grammar for English Students, desirous to gain a thorough knowledge of the language, which you have so much success in teaching, and you must permit me to say that I have been more than pleased. Your Grammar is original and philosophical, simple, plain, and logical in its method, comparatively brief, yet containing all that is needed to enable an Englishman to understand the French language, and except pronunciation, which can be learned only from a living teacher, to speak and write it correctly and idiomatically. I am aware of no grammar having a similar design that is not far inferior to it. * * * * * *

Your most obedient servant,
O. A. BROWNSON.

THE SELF-INSTRUCTOR IN FRENCH;

AN ENTIRELY NEW SYSTEM

(THE MOST SIMPLE, RAPID AND THOROUGH)

OF LEARNING THE FRENCH LANGUAGE.

By A. BIARNOIS.

One Vol., 12mo, ... Cloth, $1.50

From Rev. Dr. Roberts.

ELIZABETH, Sept. 20, 1879.

PROF. BIARNOIS.

DEAR SIR: After a limited examination of your "Self-Instructor," I am prepared to pronounce it an admirable system. It demands, above all others known to me, the only means of mastering an ancient or a modern language—viz., repetition. In some books this is made tedious to the pupil, but in yours it serves to enliven his mind and quicken his powers. It certainly enables him to acquire a more accurate knowledge of the French than from the ordinary books on that subject. Yours very truly, WM. O. ROBERTS.

From John Young, Esq.

ELIZABETH, Sept. 19, 1879.

DEAR SIR: In compliance with your request, and in simple justice to your new and admirable system of teaching your native tongue, and not from any vain or foolish desire to see my name in the newspapers, I consent to certify in this public manner to my translation into French of the arranged text (pages 45 and 46) of the "Self-Instructor," of which you are the well-known author. This translation was made with no other assistance than that afforded by your excellent grammar.

Though I have been but a short time under your instruction, it has been long enough to convince me that your system of teaching the French language is the correct one. In my opinion, a pupil of the average talent, and fair habits of industry, by following closely the references of the English text in the "Self-Instructor" (in doing which he is compelled to give to each word in the arranged text the form and place required by the French syntax*), will be able, in a short time, to acquire a thorough knowledge of the French, which it would take years to acquire by other methods. J. YOUNG.

PROF. A. BIARNOIS.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Feb. 13, 1880.

MY DEAR MR. BIARNOIS: Some months since you were kind enough to put into my hands your grammar of the French language, styled the "Self-Instructor." The volume, it seems to me, well deserves the name which it bears. Though it makes no promise of "a royal road," it will guide the steps of any intelligent student, by a direct and certain way, to the knowledge of the French tongue. Your pupil will soon be able to think in French; to write his grammatical rules in French; by easy methods to change many English words to their equivalents in French, and many French words to their equivalents in English; and to translate with confidence and accuracy from French into English, and from English into idiomatic French. This we may do by the help of the book alone. To train the ear and the voice to the sound of the language, the voice and the ears of the living teacher will, of course, be necessary. From your excellent system I have derived many useful hints, which I have already put into practice in my efforts to teach other languages. The book has made your personal instructions less necessary to me; but it has made me desire those instructions all the more. You will please to accept my thanks for the benefit which I have received following your directions. I remain, my dear sir, with great respect, yours very truly, JOHN F. PINGRY.

The authors of the above letters are well known to the public. Rev. Dr. Roberts is the pastor of one of the largest and most wealthy of the Protestant churches in this city. He is a gentleman of fine literary tastes, excellent judgment, and undoubted ability. He is highly respected and esteemed by the clergy of all denominations. Dr. Pingry is the accomplished principal of a flourishing classical school in this city.

Mr. J. Young is the principal of the Chilton Hill Classical School in Elizabeth, which has been in successful operation for over twenty years. The valedictorian of the class of 1879 of Yale College received his thorough preparation in this school.

THE

LOVE OF JESUS

TO PENITENTS.

By His Eminence Henry Edward Manning, Cardinal-Archbishop of Westminster.

1 vol. 32mo, cloth extra, ... $0 40
" " " red edges, ... 60

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

The Sacrament of Penance the Special Sacrament of the Compassion of Jesus.
The Sacrament of Penance a Means of Self-Knowledge.
The Sacrament of Penance the Means of Perfecting our Contrition.
The Sacrament of Penance the Sacrament of Reparation.
The Sacrament of Penance the Sacrament of Perseverance.

"The Love of Jesus to Penitents" is the title of a little work by his Eminence Cardinal Manning, just published by the Messrs. Sadlier & Co. It may truly be called the philosophy of penance, but it is more even than that, for it penetrates to the loving and merciful Heart of the gracious God of penance, and shows how that infinite love and mercy for penitent sinners are made manifest in the confessional. It is a very small book but inconceivably great in value, and will be found most useful and beneficial to every Catholic reader—nay, even non-Catholics might read it with profit and with pleasure. It is so sweet, so consoling, so beneficent in its delineation of the compassionate Heart of Jesus in the sacrament of penance.

LIFE OF
ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI.

TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH OF

REV. CANDIDE CHALIPPE,

BY THE

CONGREGATION OF THE ORATORY OF ST. PHILIP NERI, LONDON.

A new and revised edition, with a Preface by FATHER CHARLES DA NAZZANO, O.S.F.

Two vols. in one, cloth ex., 12mo, $1 50; cloth, gilt edges, $2 00.

This Life will teach the people of to-day that the precious ornaments of a Christian are those which ennoble the soul, not those which pander to the irregular appetites of the body. It will teach men that "dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return" was never spoken of the soul, which is akin to the angels—intellectual, unmaterial, undying, and eternal. Consequently, its adornment by the practice of virtue, and not the gratifications of the body, should form the lofty object of man's ambition. The prevailing sentiment of our age is that we enjoy the good things that are present; that we clothe ourselves in soft raiment; fill ourselves with costly meat and drink. Such, however, is not the teaching of Him born in a stable and pre-eminently styled the Man of Sorrows. Such is not the lesson taught by the life of his fervent disciple, St. Francis; but rather that the poor in spirit possess the Kingdom of Heaven; that meat and drink are not the Kingdom of Heaven, neither is the gratification of the bodily appetites, but is like to a merchant seeking a priceless treasure and selling all he has to procure it. Since such is the lesson taught by the Life of St. Francis, great good can be effected by its publication. Through the efforts of the eminent publishing house of D. & J. Sadlier & Co., we are at last presented with what justly deserves the name of a LIFE OF ST. FRANCIS, founded on the labors of the great Irish Franciscan, Luke Wading.

It stands in no need of ours to recommend it to a generous public. We have read the work, and we heartily commend it as a true and succinct account of the life of our seraphic father, St. Francis.

BARBARA LEIGH.

By Agnes L. Sadlier.

One vol. 16mo, cloth, ... $0.60
" " " cloth gilt, ... 1.00

A better or more suitable gift-book for youth we know not than this new publication of "Barbara Leigh." It is interesting in the extreme, and elegantly written, and proves itself on every page to be the product of a fruitful imagination and a well cultivated intellect. It is a little book of rare merit, full of moral reflection, and forming a pleasant contrast to the prevailing nauseous fiction of the day. Unlike the thousands of present story writers, the authoress takes her characters from ordinary life, clothes them in the robes of humanity and piety, and conducts them through trial and suffering to the glorious consummation of a Christian life.—Tablet.

GRETCHEN'S GIFT;

Or, A Noble Sacrifice.

By AGNES L. SADLIER.

One vol. 16mo, cloth, ... $0.60
" " " cloth, gilt edges, ... 1.00

This is one of the most exquisite little tales it has been our pleasure to peruse in a long time. The author, who is a deft artificer of words, presents in easy, racy English a story that promises to be of standard excellence and popularity.—Times.

This is a beautiful tale, told with great power and in elegant though simple diction. For some reason, whether it be through accident or design, we know not, it is said to be a translation from the German. There is a quaintness throughout the whole story that does certainly remind us of the inimitable Canon Schmid. But we can scarcely agree that the talents of the young authoress should be deprived of their meed of praise for successful originality by putting down as a translation what is really an original and beautiful fiction. We wish the able writer all success in the field of literature she has chosen, and in which we can promise that high honors await her.—Tablet.

Great National History of Ireland. By the Abbé McGeoghegan, and continued by John Mitchel. Handsomely illustrated, and bound in French morocco. Blocked binding, two clasps, price, ... $18.00

It is the most complete and elegant edition ever published of the History of Ireland. McGeoghegan's work stops at the Fall of Limerick. To give the important history of the last and present centuries required also an able hand. The History from the Fall of Limerick to our day has been written by one who has been himself an historic character, and whose judgment, research, and ability as a writer have ever commanded respect. In itself that History from the pen of John Mitchel is the most valuable contribution to Irish History ever issued in this country, and certainly no more fitting continuation could be found for the work of McGeoghegan.

It is the intention of the publishers to continue this series of Cheap and Popular Works without limit, should the undertaking continue to receive the encouragement and approval which has so far been bestowed upon it.

Nothing of the kind has yet been offered to the Catholic public that gives so much value for the money. The low price at which these books are sold, in quantities, enables their distribution in parishes to that extent as will, it is hoped, counteract the evil influences which result from a class of literature circulated to such an alarming extent under the title of "Dime" and "cheap" novels.

AN

ALPHABETICAL CATALOGUE

PUBLISHED BY THE Catholic Publishers of the United States.

As compiled by the Secretary of the American Catholic Publishers' Association.

NOTE.—All the Books in this Catalogue can be had of D. & J. SADLIER & CO., 31 Barclay Street, New York.

☞ The uniform discount to Clergymen, Religious Institutions, etc., as agreed upon by the Association, on all Books, NOT MARKED NET, in this Catalogue, is 25 per cent. from the prices here given.

THE Catholic Publishers having agreed to reduce the retail prices of their publications and to establish an uniform rate of discount from these prices to go into effect on and after August 12, 1882, have issued this alphabetical catalogue which comprises the leading Catholic works now published in cloth bindings.

Owing to the limited time to get together in proper shape the full catalogue of the different publishers, many of the smaller books, mostly such as are issued in paper covers, have been omitted. These, together with many books not strictly Catholic, some books in finer bindings, school and prayer books will be found on the respective publishers individual catalogues.

A catalogue with fuller and more complete titles will be issued as soon as it can be properly prepared.
